A MAN OF THE WORLD.

COMMISSIONER SQUIRE SAYS HE WAS SUPPOSED TO BE;

One Who Had His Price—Another Chapter of the Municipal History of Gotham—Flynn and Squire Indicted and Arrested—A New Collector of the Port—Other Items.

New York, Aug. 11.—Rollin M. Squire was the first witness examined before the mayor in the Flynn-Squire case Tuesday. The witness, who is charged with making unlawful promises in order to get office, said he had been intimately acquainted with Hubert O. Thompson since 1883, and had gone to Chicago at Thompson's request to further the nomination for the presidency of Mr. Cleveland. Dec. 24, 1884, Thompson suggested to Squire that Mayor Edson would not make such appointments to the board of public works as the (Thompson) suggested, the witness declared to the mayor and try to get an appointment as commissioner of public works for himself. Witness went to Mayor Edson and succeeded in his object, so far as to obtain the mayor's promise. Thompson, said to witness that his (witness) appointment would be of help to him (Thompson). Dec. 25 Thompson told witness that he wanted a little writing from him. Witness declared, but finally wrote his own resignation at the dictation of Thompson, signed it and gave it to Thompson, telling him to think it over and not give it to any one. Afterward witness told Flynn what he had done, and the latter told him it was very foolish of him to do so and said he would get the letter back for him. Later Flynn gave witness what he (witness) supposed to be the letter and it was immediately turned to the mayor. Witness was in the city writing the resignation when that Mayor Grace would appoint Thompson, a consummation that would have been perfectly satisfactory to witness. It turned out later that the letter destroyed was only a copy, and then witness went to Thompson and upbraided him for his deception in the matter and told him that thereafter they would go separate roads. Witness declared that Thompson and Flynn would not appoint any of his friends to positions in his department. When he found that a smaller force could run the department he had it cut. He said, however, that he cut out Thompson's friends because the witness could not strike anywhere without hitting a Thompson man. Witness had written a letter Nov. 2, 1885, withdrawing his resignation. Referring to the testimony of Flynn, witness denied that Flynn had secured the writing of the letter of resignation and said Flynn had said to him in an interview that they were both men of the world, and that in the witness' mind Flynn thought was not one to let a good thing slip by. Then Mr. Flynn asked him if his office of commissioner was not for sale, and what was its price. "I told him," continued Mr. Squire, "that my price was the good name and repute I would possess at the expiration of my term of office."

Witness denied that Flynn had any more influence in his department than any other district leader, and referring to the matter of mutilating the records, stated that charges had been preferred against Joseph Blumenthal and that individual had resigned. Then, at the request of Blumenthal's friends, witness had ordered the letters containing the charges torn out of the book. It was merely an act of kindness to Blumenthal, and witness and the assistant clerk, who told him, continued Mr. Squire, "that my price was the good name and repute I would possess at the expiration of my term of office."

It having been announced at this point that the grand jury had indicted Squire and Flynn, counsel for the accused asked that the hearing be adjourned until Thursday, which request the mayor granted. The law under which the grand jury found the indictments makes it a misdemeanor to ask or receive a reward for appointing another person to office, or for any official to give to any other person the right to exercise any of his functions, or become interested in any contract in which the city is interested. The penalty is permanent disqualification for office.

Inspector Byrnes arrested Commissioner Squire as he was leaving the city hall with his family. Mr. Squire did not seem at all disturbed, and talked laughingly with the inspector as the two walked over to the district attorney's office across the park. A large crowd accompanied them, and the people seemed as anxious to get a glimpse of Squire as if he were a famous murderer. At the district attorney's office Squire met Flynn, who had gone there to give himself up. Flynn appeared to be much worried. After a long wait Theodore Ross, treasurer of Wallace's theater, and Flynn's brother-in-law, appeared and was accepted as Flynn's spokesman. Flynn then departed. The printer, came in and went on Squire's bond. Squire then left and the crowd of politicians who had gathered dispersed.

SUPERSEDED COLLECTOR HEDDEN.

Daniel Magone Appointed Collector of the Port of New York.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The president Tuesday appointed Daniel Magone, of Ogdensburg, N. Y., collector of customs of the port of New York, to succeed Mr. Hodges, resigned. Mr. Magone is a native of Ireland, and about 40 years of age. He was chairman of the Democratic state committee for two years during the Tilden regime, and was appointed by Mr. Tilden a member of the special commission on the canal route. He possesses ability in his profession.

New York, Aug. 11.—The appointment of Mr. Magone was the absorbing topic in the custom house Tuesday. Acting special collector Arthur Barry sat in the collector's office and attended to the duties of collector. The feeling on Wall street was in favor of the change. Many of the brokers have known Mr. Magone for years and they united in speaking well of him. Mr. Magone will probably assume his new duties on Sept. 1.

Collector Hodges, in his letter of resignation, says that collections have been made under his management at a loss percentage of 10 per cent. under any previous management, yet he has been persistently attacked and misrepresented, especially in regard to his financial service policy. He says he found many incompetent men in the custom house appointed by Republican administrations for political reasons. In filling their places with competent men who are Democrats, he considers that he has been within the civil service rules. Nevertheless, in order to relieve the president of embarrassment on his account, he offers his resignation, with thanks for the uniform courtesy shown him during his term.

Michael Davitt on Home Rule.

New York, Aug. 11.—Michael Davitt says he looks forward to the triumph of home rule within four or five years. He thinks Lord Salisbury will probably introduce in parliament a bill to establish elective county boards in England, Wales, Scotland, and Ireland. This would not be accepted by Mr. Parnell, and, under pressure, Lord Salisbury might announce that he would introduce an Irish bill next year. Mr. Davitt will leave New York for Chicago next later than Friday of this week. He refuses to express any opinion about the differences of President Eggen and the New York league municipal council.

Beat the Gentlemen of Ireland.

New York, Aug. 11.—The gentlemen of Ireland and a picked team from different clubs in the United States played an international game of lacrosse at St. George's, S. I. Tuesday. In an exciting contest lasting one hour and a half, the American team won 4 goals to the Irishmen 2.

A Big Thing for Buffalo Bill.

New York, Aug. 11.—William F. Cody, better known as Buffalo Bill, received word Tuesday from his lawyer at Cleveland that he is likely to win his lawsuit for the property on Euclid avenue, Cleveland. The land is valued at $15,000,000, and was illegally transferred by a grand uncle of Mr. Cody.

Three Children Drawn.

New York, Aug. 11.—Three daughters of Ey Wyman, a fisherman at Far Rockaway, were drowned Tuesday while bathing. They were 10, 10 and 8 years old. The bodies have not yet been recovered.

NOT ANSWERING QUESTIONS.

A British Parliamentary Candidate Who Will Not Be Catechized.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—Mr. Arthur Chamberlain, member of the House of Commons, has on behalf of the Birmingham Radical union, written to Mr. William Cook, the Liberal candidate opposing the election of Mr. Henry Matthews in Birmingham, asking that that gentleman's views on the Irish question be made entirely clear. The grounds taken by Mr. Chamberlain for asking Mr. Cook to specifically define his position are that the Radical union, in the person of a recent letter of Mr. Cook, has reason to fear that he still holds separate views, in spite of his previous statement that he would recognize the country's verdict. To this letter Mr. Cook replied in a refusal to be catechized by you, or to be made a cat-paw of any political association. I have not departed from my agreement which I made with a desire to reunite the Liberal party.

A Point in the Cabinet.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The Daily News prints a letter from a well-known Irish nationalist, who says he is personally acquainted with the events of which he speaks, showing the previous record of Mr. Henry Matthews, now home secretary, on the Irish question. Matthews, the writer says, defeated Sir John Lubbock for parliament in Birmingham in 1885, because Barry had been given control in cases against Fenians. Matthews supported with him the force south of Ireland (Fenians), and the allocation of £10,000 among 300 voters. The Irish press at that time were filled with details of the contest, and hailed Matthews as entitled to share popular favor with O'Donovan Rossa. The writer says Matthews was one of the chief supporters of the Fenian movement.

What the Irish League Will Do.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—A meeting of the Irish League members of the House of Commons has been called to take place on the day of the final adjournment of the present session of parliament to discuss a plan of action to be observed during the fall and winter session. It is understood that these members will generally support the government, but will preserve an independent attitude in Irish matters.

THE MURDEROUS LUNATIC AGAIN.

The Ponds His Sister-in-Law's Skull to Pieces with a Hatchet.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 11.—About 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon one of the most heinous crimes of the century was committed at the Ponds, N. Y. A man, who had been confined in the insane asylum at Poughkeepsie, had escaped, and had been found by a patrolman Lynch, and found in the floor amidst a pool of blood, two women; Mrs. Ella Davis and Mrs. J. Davis. The latter lay across the body of the younger woman, whose life was quickly ebbing away from the ghastly wounds in her head and neck. The man was quickly summoned, but the injured woman died within a few moments. The base of the skull having been terribly crushed, it was found that the woman had been nearly smothered to death.
